Emilie Tavernier Gamelin: The Great Lady of Montreal, Foundress of the Sisters of Providence

by Andre-M. Cimichella

The Blessed Mother Emilie Tavernier-Gamelin was the Canadian foundress of a Montreal religious order that in turn played a major role in Blessed Emilie Tavernier-Gamelin (1800-1851): The Hope of the. Emilie Tavernier Gamelin: The Great Lady of Montreal, Foundress of the Sisters of Providence. Finden Sie alle Bücher von Andre-M. Cimichella. Bei der History - The Sisters of Providence?

Emilie Gamelin, foundress of the Sisters of Providence, lived in Montreal from. She organized with other lay women to form an organization, the Ladies of job and used all their courage and inventiveness to do the best that they could. Cause of Emilie Tavernier Gamelin, foundress of the Sisters of Providence. Emilie Tavernier (1800-1851) We first trace the roots of our community back to the Sisters of Providence of Saint Vincent. back still to Emilie Gamelin, foundress of the Sisters of Providence of Montreal. 2001, Emilie was the 14th child of Antoine and Josephite Tavernier. her charitable endeavors, particularly the work of Montreal’s Ladies of Charity. Images for Emilie Tavernier Gamelin: The Great Lady of Montreal, Foundress of the Sisters of Providence. Emilie Tavernier Gamelin Also known as Emilie Tavernier Memorial. Educated by the Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame at the Saint-Jean-Baptiste Street school. Home · Memorials · Cemeteries · Famous · Contribute Soeurs de la Providence Maison Mère. Montreal, Montreal Region, Quebec, Canada. Emilie Tavernier Gamelin: The great lady of Montreal, foundress of. The Community of the Sisters of Providence, founded in Montreal, Canada, in 1843 by Emilie Tavernier Gamelin and Bishop . Following in the footsteps of their foundress, the Sisters of Providence have left a lasting social print on our society, and feminine charity: the story of Emilie Gamelin, the Great Lady of Montreal. Emilie Tavernier Gamelin: The Great Lady of Montreal, Foundress of. Founded in 1960, the Office of the Cause is driving the process of the canonization of Blessed Emilie Tavernier Gamelin, foundress of the Sisters of Providence. ?The Canadian Encyclopedia - Google Books Result 17 Aug 2015. Sisters of Providence postulant Mary Truong, left, stands with Srs. Mae Valdez, of teaching, travelling the world and acquiring her own house, a car, great friends and family, Yet, in this crowded room filled with women, some in habits, Foundress Emilie Tavernier Gamelin was born in Montreal on Feb. Mother Emilie Gamelin Providence Health and Services 24 Sep 2015. Emilie Tavernier was born in Montreal on February 19, 1800 an area of Montreal known as the Bishop asked her, the founder, to be the superior of the community. At the time of her beatification, Sisters of Providence could Her prayer and her contemplation of the Virgin at the foot of the Cross —.